

The map displays the Bühl region in Switzerland, characterized by green forested areas and grey built-up zones. A network of blue lines represents rivers and streams. Numerous sampling points, indicated by blue dots, are distributed across the landscape. Key locations labeled include Bächlingen, Hartenau, Bänkewis, Riethüsli, Holzwis, Eich, Oberhof, Bühl, Büültobel, Schache, Laame, Buechacker, Moswis, Buechrüti, Gehrries, Rime, Hohrütli, Hitzliwies, Rietli, Breitenacker, Hölzli, Ueterschen, Riedern, Tobelacker, Mösli, Wingetsacker, and Braunau. A dense cluster of sampling points is visible near Braunau, along a road labeled 'KLOPPENSTEIG'. Other roads shown include 'HÖLZLISTRASSE' and 'BUECHSTRASSE'. The map is credited to OpenStreetMap contributors.

(C) OpenStreetMap contributors