

The map displays a residential neighborhood with a central green field. A blue line, representing a path, starts at a blue dot on the left side of the field and ends at another blue dot on the right side. A dashed line connects these two points. The field is surrounded by buildings and streets. The streets shown are Althardstrasse, Wehntalerstrasse, Trockenlooweg, and Neuhardstrasse. The buildings are labeled with their respective house numbers. The map is credited to OpenStreetMap contributors.
