

The map displays the Thurgau region in Switzerland, with 26 numbered sampling locations marked by colored dots and numbered circles. The locations are distributed across the region, with higher concentrations in the central and eastern parts. The map includes geographical features like the Aare river, Lake Ägelsee, and various towns and villages. The sampling locations are distributed across the region, with higher concentrations in the central and eastern parts.

(C) OpenStreetMap contributors