

The map shows the Aargau region in Switzerland, with a network of rivers and streams. Sampling locations for the Aargau Water Quality Survey are marked by colored dots and numbered circles 1 through 6. The locations are distributed across the region, with a high concentration of points in the northwest (near Wieselent) and a smaller cluster in the southeast (near Gerolshausen).